Dear Boys and Girls!!

It seems like so long since I wrote to you. Sorry about that!! So much has been happening, so many changes. But that is the life of God's Warriors. We go when He says go and do what has to be done! Even in your young life you must learn to listen to what God wants you to do and follow!

One big change that has happened is that we don't live in Conakry anymore. And guess what? We don't live in Bamako either!! We sent a big letter to you about our move there but then things changed and we ended up staying in Guinea in a town called Siguiri (you can say SI-ger-ee) We will be doing two things from here. Pastor Tim will learn the Maninka language and help with the ministry that we have here, and he will also be visiting other national churches that our church has all over Africa. So he'll also be doing some traveling after he learns the language. I'm going to be also visiting our national churches and helping them with projects that they are doing that the LCMS is helping them with. So I guess we will both be traveling! Right now we are working to get our new house set up. We have to put in water and set up our solar system since there is not a good electrical system here yet. Those are the two big things that are left.

LANGUAGE LEARNING

On May 28th we are going to be leaving Guinea to go to Dakar, in Senegal. You remember we wrote before about our daughters going to school there. Well on June 4th our daughter Katie will be graduating from high school. So she will be returning to the US this summer to get ready for college. There are going to be so many changes for Katie. Even though she has been in the US for a couple of years, most of her life has been in Africa. The climate will be different, the food, her friends, the culture, the distance from her parents...She would really appreciate your prayers for her as she makes this big adjustment in her life.

OUR NEW HOUSE

So please pray this month:

- For us as we get settled in here
- For the Maninka people, that God will open their ears to hear the Gospel
- For Katie as she moves to the US this summer

Love in Jesus,

Pastor Tim and Beth Heiney
